

Music Acts confirmed!

At this years Ästhetiker Wängl Tängl in Mayrhofen in the Zillertal valley crazy things are happening! From 14th to 20th of March not only will well known Snowboarders, Skateboarders and Artists be present but also world famous Musicians will be there rocking the party. Confirmed are Masta Ace, Edo G, Millencolin, Danny Breaks and Ronny Trettmann!

At the Snowboard contest the qualification, open to everyone, will be carried out. The best 15 riders will be drafted to join the 15 invited teams forming crews of 4 – Gäng Jäm is the Motto! The best team will take home the majority of the prize money and, as if this wasn't enough, the best individual rider of the comp gets a Suzuki DR125SM motorbike.

Three weeks before the event, the Vans Penken Park will be modified accordingly with countless man hours and all kinds of heavy duty machinery. Once again the piece de resistance will be the Red Bull end section and as per usual will require some pretty tech bowl riding skills from all entrants!

The Ästhetiker Skateboard Jäms are always focal points for the Austrian scene and demonstrate the affinity between the two boardsports. This year numerous Austrian skate stars will be joined by various international Pro Skaters from the Carhartt and Vans Teams. Once again the bombastic atmosphere of the event combined with the caliber of the massive Mega-Miniramp will set Mayrhofen alight.

The Ästhetiker are once again bringing world famous musicians to Mayrhofen: Ronny Trettmann with Sodom & Gomorrah and the Hotsteppas will make the Scotland Yard Pub go wild. At the Äskimo Party in the Whitelounge on the Ahorn Mountain above Mayrhofen Vice will be in charge! Danny Breaks, DJ Buzz and Preddy will be at the Rugged Party presented by Carhartt in the Trinstenbachalm in Ginzling. Craziiness is predicted! For the final party the Ästhetiker invited two true heavyweights of New York Hip Hop to throw down with Austria's own Waxolutionists-Live-Band. Its gonna go off!

The contributing artists have a national and international background and are eager to work together, namely Danny Wainwright, Phekt and Fat Cat. This year the Pow-Surfers of 'Transworld Snowboarding Rider of the Year 2008' Wolle Nyvelt will be the canvas for the artwork. Pow-Surfers are specially shaped boards designed to be ridden in the deep snow without bindings.

For all of you motivated Shredders and Party goers out there who want to be part of the event, we have cooked up a special deal which reads as follows: Price from 399,- Euro per person per week. Included are 7 nights accommodation with breakfast, liftpass and free party entry the whole week, Open Pro Park Snow and Skate (except during contest hours) and obviously a decently filled goodie bag. Whoever is interested in being part of this week but doesn't feel like stepping up to the contest, can book online on www.aesthetiker.com

Music Acts

Edo G

Edo G, also known as Ed O.G., is a hip-hop artist from Boston, Massachusetts. Although not nationally known, he has a cult following in Boston and an international fanbase. On his solo album 'The Truth Hurts' (as Edo G), he linked up with DJ Premier and Pete Rock; the latter connection turned into a partnership. In 2005, he started a group called 'Special Teamz' with fellow Boston rappers Jaysaun and Slaine and DJ Jayceeoh. Edo G is currently working on a new album with Masta Ace. The first single, entitled 'What Does It Matter', can be heard on his official Myspace page (www.myspace.com/edogboston).

Masta Ace

As one of Americas rap legends, the artist from Brooklyn is known as a real underground mc. Back home, he is a renowned artist who is about to get the same recognition in Europe. With the single 'Jeep Ass Nigga' he received most attention and with the label 'Delicious Vinyl' he released the historical album 'Slaughterhouse' (1993) which made him world famous.

Together with Edo G on stage, his performance at the Wängl Tängl Party is a show nobody should miss! Check www.myspace.com/mastaaceofficial

Ronny Trettmann

The German singer is known for his groovy Ragga/Dancehall tunes and since the release of his single 'Der Sommer ist für alle da' everyone has heard of him. Born in Chemnitz and based in Leipzig, the artist is a reference in German Patwa. The release of his single 'Hand Ab' gave him a lot of recognition as he said that it is all about the personal experience.

Check www.myspace.com/ronnytrettmann

Danny Breaks

The drum & bass DJ, producer, and record label owner from England, also known for his experimental instrumental hip hop production and early music career as breakbeat hardcore artist 'Sonz of a Loop Da Loop Era'. In 1994 he established the imprint 'Droppin' Science' and began releasing as Danny Breaks, moving with the evolution of hardcore into jungle, and then into contemporary drum & bass. The label has been inactive since 2002, with him preferring to release increasingly experimental material on new label Alphabet Zoo.

Check www.myspace.com/dannybreaks

Millencolin

The Swedish skatepunk band is known for rocking hard at their gigs and are always a delight for every party goer. Founded back in 1992, they signed with the label Burning Heart Records and since the album 'Life on a Plate' (1995) they have international recognition. On the occasion of the Waengl Taengl they will present their shoe together with Vans.